

Announcing our Eighth Season: 2008-2009

Unitarian Universalist Church of Indianapolis: 615 West 43rd Street ♪ www.uui.org
12 and under free ♪ Snacks, coffee and wine available ♪ www.indyfolkseries.org

All concerts are Saturday evenings, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., except Friday, September 26 (Bill Staines)

September 26: Bill Staines NOTE: FRIDAY CONCERT

Bill's concerts are among our most popular ever. A prominent folkie since the 1960s, his songs have been recorded by artists from Peter, Paul and Mary to Jerry Jeff Walker. Fellow artist Nanci Griffith says "He carries on where Woody left off." www.acousticmusic.com/staines/ $15

October 25: Michael Johnathan

A self-described folksinger, songwriter and tree hugger, Michael Johnathan has been called "Woody Guthrie in a cyber world". One reviewer said he combines "the inventiveness of Bob Dylan, the melodic voice of John Denver, [and] the showmanship of Garrison Keillor."

http://americanaagency.com/aa_mjohnathon.html $10

November 29: Open Mic Night Benefit

Enjoy a houseful of local artists pitching in to benefit a great cause. (Beneficiary to be announced.) IFS Open Mic Nights are an annual highlight of artistry and goodwill. $8

February 21, 2009: Blueprint Music

Five memorable musicians, driven by Kate Lamont's soulful vocals and poetic lyrics and Doug Sauter's guitar and banjo playing. Add artists on cello, mandolin/fiddle and Dobro/African percussion, and enjoy Blueprint Music's unique mix of folk, bluegrass, progressive rock, Americana and world music.

www.blueprintmusic.com/ $10

March 28: Goldmine Pickers

Goldmine Pickers is a young, passionate, four-piece band weaving together roots and inspiration in bluegrass, jazz, folk and Irish traditions to create an energetic new space in Americana music.

www.goldminepickers.com/ $10

April 18: Amy Carol Webb

Singer-songwriter Amy Carol Webb is known as a "beloved song weaver." She is passionate, powerful, and poignant. She's the girl next door and no ordinary woman. Come and savor her music—you'll understand. www.amycarolwebb.com/ $10

May 16: Emily Ann Thompson: A Celtic Celebration

Emily's Celtic fiddling has been called "organic, fresh, and full of passion." She plays traditional Irish, Scottish, and Cape Breton tunes in an innovative and energetic style. Emily performs with guitar, and this concert will include traditional Irish dance and vocals as well. www.emilyannthompson.com/ $10